Why You'll Love This Trip

This extended itinerary combines Norway's iconic rail journeys and coastal flights with a self-drive adventure in the Lofoten Islands. Explore historic cities, fjords, and Arctic landscapes, then discover fishing villages, white-sand beaches, and dramatic scenery at your own pace. Ideal for travelers who value flexibility and immersive nature experiences.

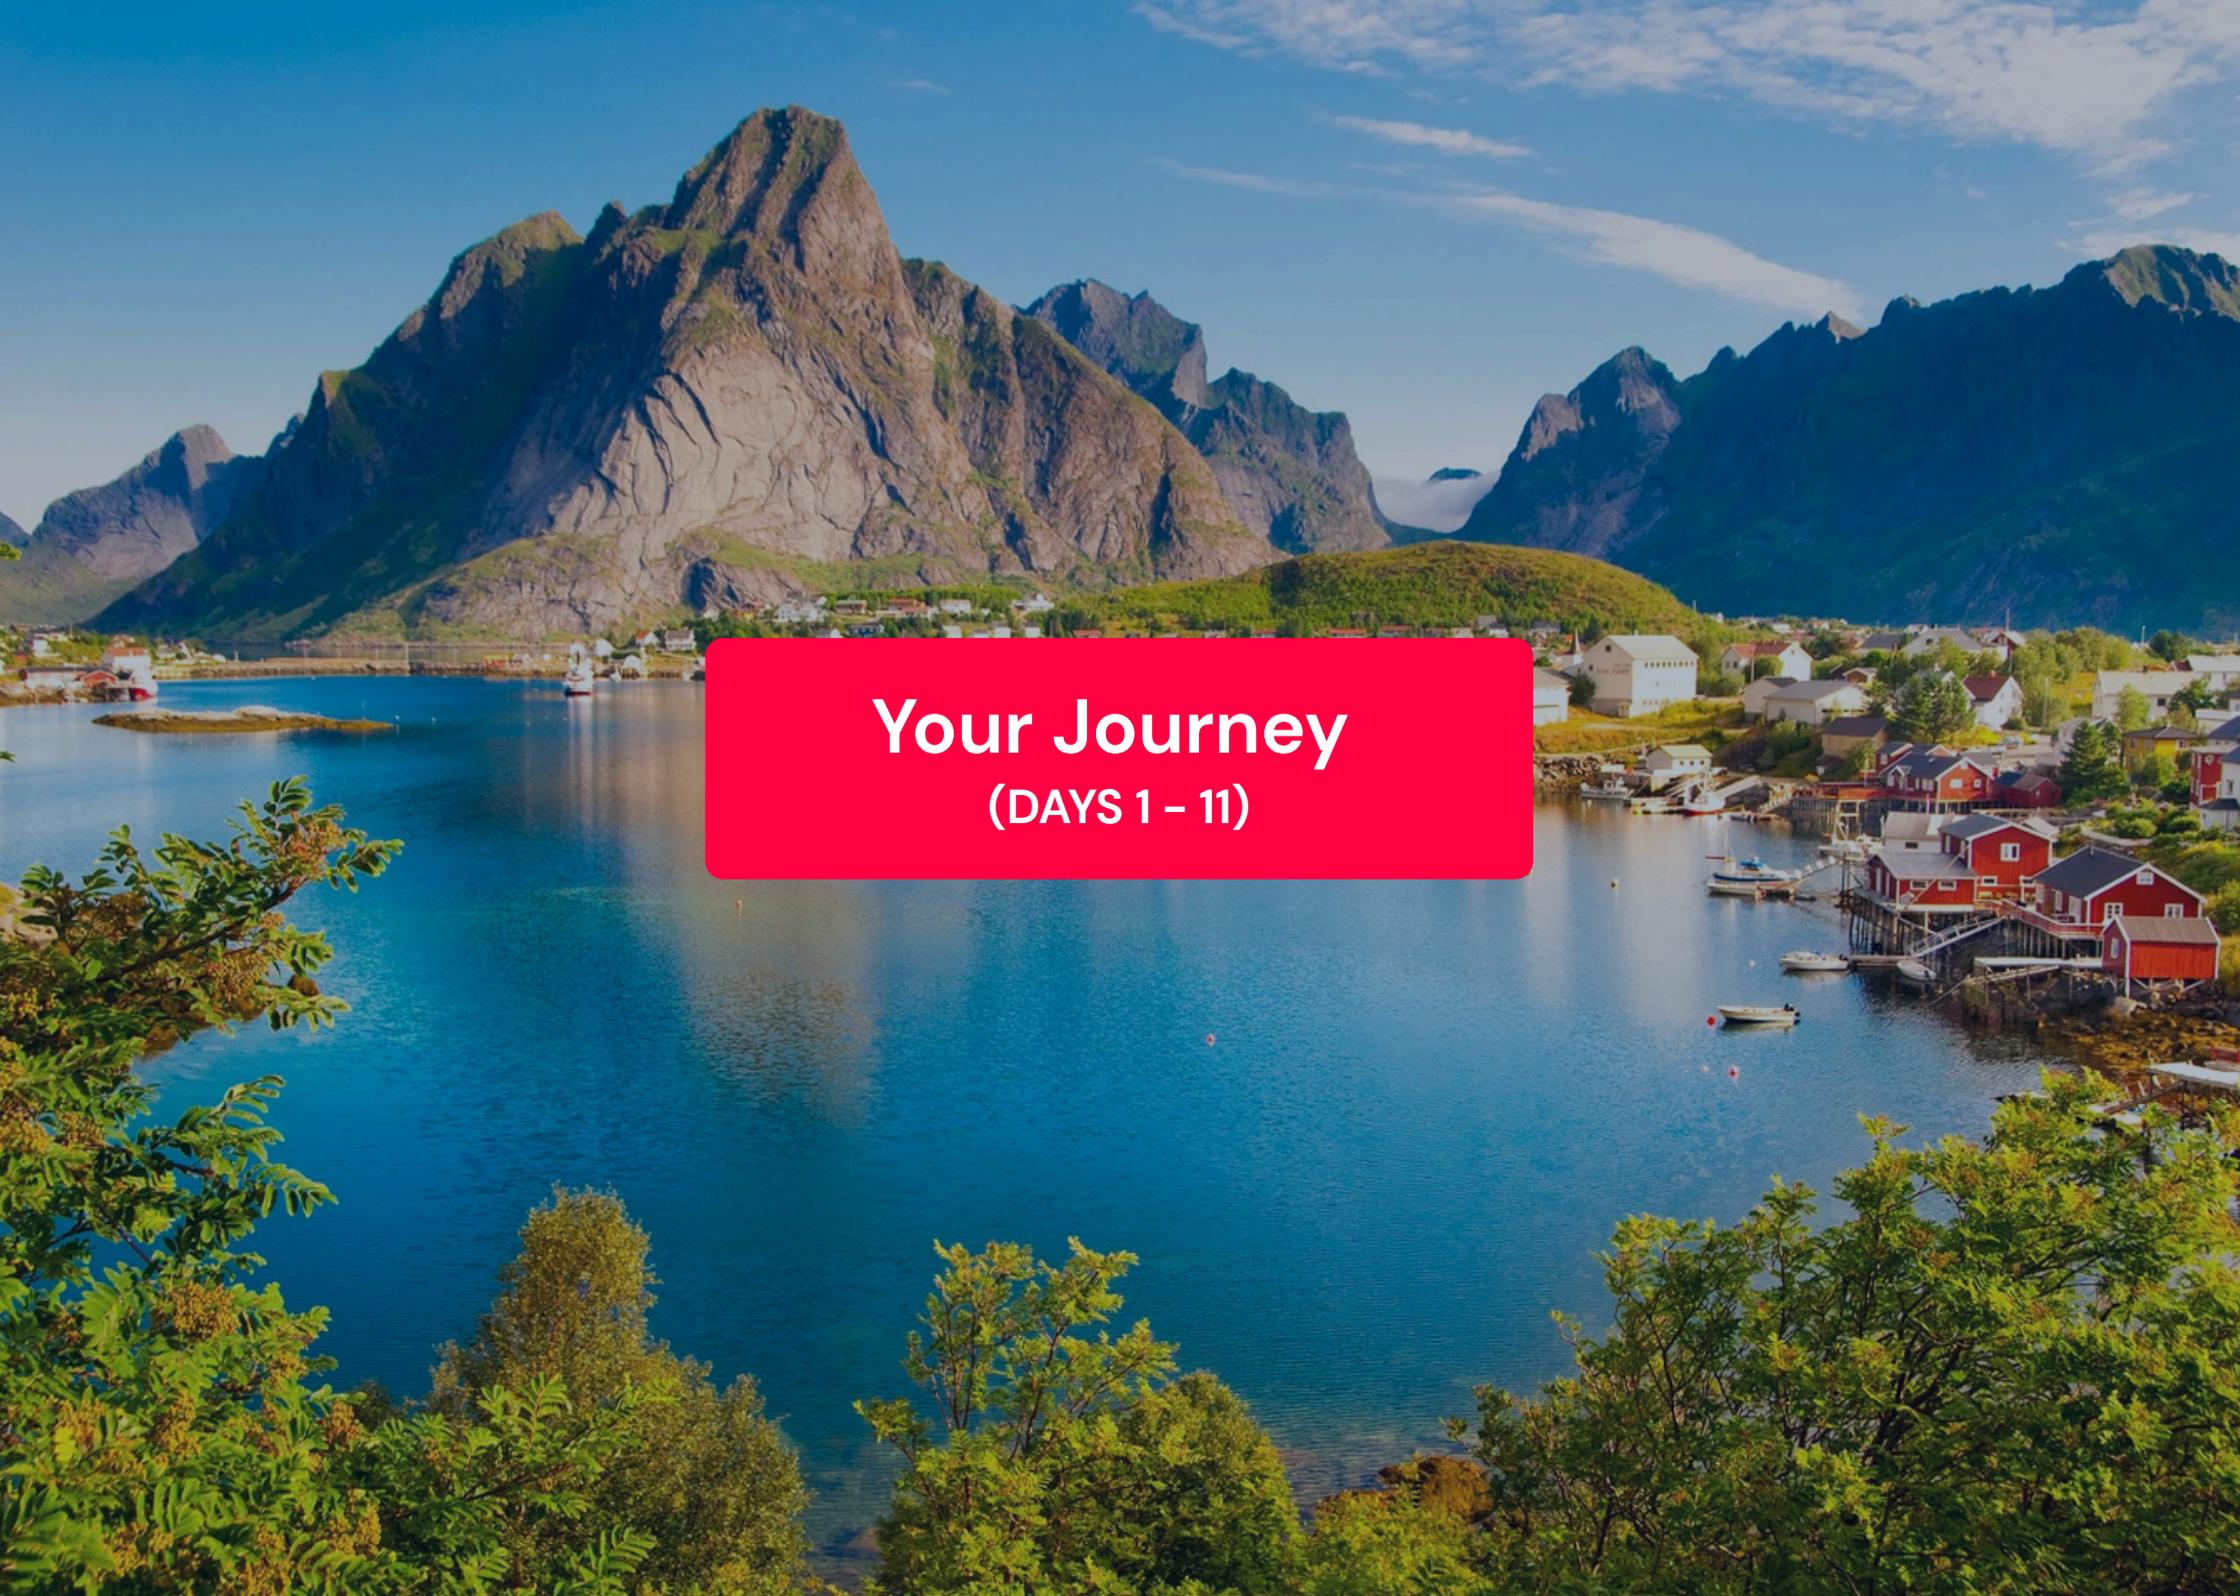

What You'll Experience

A varied Norwegian journey combining classic highlights with independent exploration.

You will:

- Travel across Norway on one of Europe's most scenic rail routes
- Explore historic Bergen and enjoy panoramic city views
- Cruise along the Arctic coast by silent electric ship
- Discover the Lofoten Islands on a self-drive road trip
- Visit iconic fishing villages such as Nusfjord and Reine
- Enjoy small-group cultural and coastal experiences

A scenic view of a Norwegian fjord. In the foreground, there are lush green trees. The middle ground shows a large, red wooden building with a white roof, situated on a small island or peninsula. The water is a deep blue, and several small boats are visible. In the background, there are large, rugged mountains with some greenery. The sky is blue with some light clouds.
